

Faith verses Unbelief

“Without faith it is impossible to please Him” Heb. 11:6

(The following are various quotes on faith – some are unknown and some are by John Bunyan)

Faith believes the Word of God - but Unbelief questions the certainty of the same.

Faith sees more in the promise of God to help than in all other things to hinder – but Unbelief, notwithstanding God’s promise, saith, “how can these things be?”

Faith will make thee see love in the heart of Christ, when with His mouth He gives reproofs - but Unbelief will imagine wrath in His heart when with His mouth and Word He saith He loves us.

Faith will help the soul to wait though God defers - but Unbelief will snuff and throw it all up, if God makes any tarrying.

Faith gives comfort in midst of fears - but Unbelief causes fear in the midst of comfort.

Faith will suck sweetness out of God’s rod - but Unbelief can find no comfort in the greatest of mercies.

Faith makes great burdens light - but Unbelief makes light ones intolerably heavy.

Faith helps us when we are down - but Unbelief throws us down when we are up.

Faith brings us near to God when we are far from Him - but Unbelief puts us far from God when we are near to Him.

Faith puts a man under grace - but Unbelief holds him under wrath (and law).

Faith purifies the heart - but Unbelief keeps it polluted and impure.

Faith makes our work acceptable to God through Christ - but whatsoever is of Unbelief is sin, for without faith it is impossible to please Him.

By Faith Peter walked on water – but by Unbelief he began to sink.

Faith gives us peace and comfort in our souls - but Unbelief works troubles and tossings like the restless waves of the sea.

Faith makes us see preciousness in Christ - but Unbelief sees no form, beauty or comeliness in Him.

By Faith we have life in Christ’s fullness – but by Unbelief we starve and pine away.

Faith believes and then sees - but Unbelief says “if” – If I see, I will believe.

Faith gives us the victory over the law, sin, death, the devil, and all evils - but Unbelief lays us obnoxious to them all.

Faith will show us more excellency in things not seen, than in them that are - but Unbelief sees more of things that are, than in things that will be hereafter.

Faith sees something in God's hand and says, "I will have it" and gets it - but Unbelief sees something in God's hand and says, "I wish I had that."

Faith is dependence upon God - but Unbelief is dependence upon man and self: independence. "We should not trust in ourselves, but in God," 2Cor.1:9.

Faith learns from the wisdom of God - but Unbelief learns from the philosophy of man.

Faith sees the grace of God to sinners, and says, "why me" - but Unbelief sees the sufferings of good people and says, "why God?"

Faith understands the mysteries of creation, the cross, the Christ and the coming world - Unbelief theorizes, agonizes, stipulates, and repudiates creation & the Lord Jesus Christ.

It is better to doubt your doubts and believe your beliefs
Than doubt your beliefs and believe your doubts

Faith should be the master and feelings the servants,
For feelings make bad masters but good servants

Faith is taking God at His Word and acting on it

The steps of faith fall upon the seeming void,
And find the rock beneath
